

You are invited to join author Leah Lemieux for a special event screening of the award-winning documentary film THE COVE
Find out why this powerful, beautiful and devastating documentary has galvanized audiences all around the globe.

THE COVE is an amazing hi-tech thriller following the daring crusade of an elite group of activists and filmmakers as they strive to uncover a dark secret involving human rights abuse and the covert killing of thousands of dolphins, hidden beneath the infamous waters of The Cove... This Oscar-nominated film is a must-see for anyone who cares about dolphins, the oceans they live in, environmental/ human rights issues—and this planet we all share.

The screening will be followed by Q&A discussion and a short introduction to Leah Lemieux's new book, REKINDLING THE WATERS: The Truth About Swimming with Dolphins

Thornbrough Building, Room 1200
(beside the UC)
University of Guelph, 7pm,
Thursday February 11th.